CRAFT SHOW TO BENEFIT UNITED WAY

NEWARK – Licking County United Way will be the beneficiary of the Fall Craft Show at Chestnut House, a senior living community, on Saturday, November 7th from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. Chestnut House is located at 1065 Johnson Avenue in Newark.

“We are pleased to be the beneficiary of the proceeds raised at the Chestnut House Fall Craft Show,” said Donna L. Carpenter, executive director of the Licking County United Way. “United Way is thankful for their support.”

The community can shop the work of local artisans and vendors including quilts, jewelry, and toile painting, In addition, raffle tickets will be sold for a chance to win a quilted fall wall hanging. Lunch will be available for purchase.

“The craft show is an excellent opportunity for our residents to purchase their holiday gifts and for the general public to learn about our services,” says Pat Williams, Residence Director for Chestnut House.

For further information or to reserve space as a vendor, call 366-5271. For information on Licking County United Way, call 345-6685 or visit www.lcuw.net.
